Mr. D. A. Sullivan
Executive Director
National Military-Industrial Conference
140 South Dearborn Street
Chicago 3, Illinois

Dear Mr. Sullivan:

On behalf of Mr. Dulles, I want to thank you for your recent letter about our mutual interest in teaching courses on the dangers of Communism.

As you probably know by now, Mr. Dulles has talked directly to Frank Barnett about bringing the resources of the Richardson Foundation and the Institute for American Strategy into play on this project.

Mr. Dulles has noted with great interest the fact that your 1961 Conference will be devoted to this aspect of American education. It is too early for him to make a firm commitment to appear at the Conference, but I suggest that you renew the invitation at a later date.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Walter Elder
Assistant to the Director
